

Members' Code of Conduct

Adopted 5th Jan 2021

Introduction

Pursuant to section 27 of the Localism Act 2011, Eversley Parish Council ('the Council') has adopted this Code of Conduct to promote and maintain high standards of behaviour by its members whenever they conduct the business of the Council, including the business of the office to which they were elected or appointed.

This Code of Conduct is underpinned by the following seven Nolan Principles of public life:

- Selflessness: Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family or their friends
- Integrity: Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.
- Objectivity: In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should always make choices on merit.
- Accountability: Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.
- Openness: Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.
- Honesty: Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest
- Leadership: Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

Scope

Individual members must comply with this code whenever they act, claim to act or give the impression they are acting in their official capacity as a councillor.

Interpretation

1. In this code, a “meeting” means any meeting
 - a. of the Council
 - b. any of the council’s committees, sub-committees,
 - c. any of the council’s advisory groups, working parties or joint committees.
2. For the purposes of this Code, and unless otherwise expressed, a reference to a member of the Council includes non-council members who have been co-opted onto committees or sub-committees.
3. It is each councillor’s responsibility to comply with the provisions of the code.

Member obligations

When a member of the Council acts, claims to act or gives the impression of acting as a representative of the Council, he/she has the following obligations.

1. To behave in such a way that a reasonable person would regard as respectful.
2. Not to act in a way which could be reasonably perceived as bullying or intimidation.
3. Not to seek to improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person.
4. To use the resources of the Council in accordance with its requirements.
5. Not to disclose information which is confidential or where disclosure is prohibited by law.

Registration of interests

Within 28 days of this Code being adopted by the Council, or the member’s election or the co-opted member’s appointment (where that is later), he/she shall register with the Monitoring Officer the interests which fall within the categories set out in Appendices A and B.

Upon the re-election of a member or the re-appointment of a co-opted member, he/she shall within 28 days re-register with the Monitoring Officer any interests in Appendices A and B.

A member shall register with the Monitoring Officer any change to interests or new interests in Appendices A and B within 28 days of becoming aware of it.

A member need only declare the existence but not the details of any interest which the Monitoring Officer agrees is a ‘sensitive interest’. A sensitive interest is one which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead the member or a person connected with the member to be subject to violence or intimidation.

Declaration of interests at meetings

Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A the member shall withdraw from the meeting. He/she only has to declare what his/her interest is if it is not already entered in the member's register of interests or if he/she has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it. He/she can return to the meeting once the matter has been considered.

Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A which is a sensitive interest, the member shall withdraw as above. If it is a sensitive interest which has not already been disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, the member shall disclose he/she has an interest but not the nature of it.

Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix B, the member shall not vote on the matter. He/she may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting.

A member only has to declare the details of his/her interest in Appendix B if it is not already entered in his/her register of interests or he/she has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it or if he/she speaks on the matter. If he/she holds an interest in Appendix B which is a sensitive interest not already disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, he/she shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.

Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to a financial interest of a friend, relative or close associate (other than an interest of a person in Appendix A), the member shall disclose the nature of the interest and not vote on the matter. He/she may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting. If it is a 'sensitive interest' the member shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.

Dispensations

On a written request made to the Council's Proper Officer (the Clerk), the Council may grant a member a dispensation to participate in a discussion and vote on a matter at a meeting even if he/she has an interest (in Appendices A and B) provided the Council believes that the number of members otherwise prohibited from taking part in the meeting would impede the transaction of the business; or it is in the interests of the inhabitants in the Council's area to allow the member to take part or it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation. In the case of a general dispensation for all councillors the Executive Officer is authorised to grant this upon receipt of a written request from the councillors to do so.
